[1] GLENESHA BOWLING-MOYE)

ORDER

The defendant has filed a letter with the court, requesting “early release to home confinement” (Docket No. 135), which is opposed by the government (Docket No. 140). The defendant’s request is DENIED.

As the government points out, the court is without the authority to modify the defendant’s sentence at this point. It appears that representatives of the Bureau of Prisons are informing the defendant that it may be within their power to release her early to home confinement. If that is the case, she should pursue her request with those individuals.

It is so ORDERED.
